Draw a picture and label it with interesting adjectives. Use a thesaurus to help you.	Retell the story to a grown up or your sibling. What is your favourite part of the story – can you explain why? Who was your favourite character? Draw a picture and write some key words about it.	Zog's super-power was that he was able to fly. What would you choose as your superpower for a new character in the story. Explain what they would do and why? Can they use their superpower to help people like Zog did? Write 3 sentences to describe your new character and their superpower.	Write your own story with your new, amazing character. You can make another story map to help you you're your ideas. Don't forget to use our story structure of setting, character, problem and solution. Ensure you use a variety of conjunctions and, so, but, because, if, then, also.	Work with a grown up to check your writing. Look out for capital letters, full stops, spellings and whether your story makes sense. Re-write a final version using your best handwriting. Finish by adding some illustrations.
